POETRY.

Buck and Breck.

Come flock around our standard, boys,
The time for work has come;
If you from ruin and rapine
Would guard a much loved home.

The country that your Fathers treed
From foreign servile chains,
By foes domestic, in array,
Is now assailed again.

Then spurn the chains that fanatics
Would bind about your neck!
And with one heart, and mind, and voice,
Hurrah for Buck and Breck.

Buchanan is the man, my lads,
To lead you to the fight;
And on the issues of the day,
You'll surely find him right.

Our constitution as it is,
Our undivided land;
This is the platform, broad and true,
On which our chieftains stand.

The North and South, the East and West
All rally round his name,
No issues sectional, to mar
The glory of his fame

Our country, and whole country,
Shall be our watchword still;
Union and Liberty shall sound
From every vale and hill.

The "old line" Whigs, can't all be sold
To swell confusion's band,
Thousands will come forth tried like gold,
From out the burning brand.

They'll flock around our banners, boys,
And make the welkin ring,
Union and Liberty, 's the song,
These gallant heroes sing.

Would'st see our blood-bought country torn,
By faction's dastard throng?
Would'st see our glorious banner trailed,
Through dust and blood along?

Would'st see our cherished liberties,
By traitor hands laid low?
Methinks I hear throughout the land,
One proud indignant No!

Then flock around our banner, boys,
Our country save from wreck,
And with one heart, one mind, one voice,
Declare for Buck and Breck.

POLITICAL.

The Greatest Political Meeting ever held in Pennsylvania!

FIFTY THOUSAND PEOPLE AT THE HOME OF BUCHANAN!

THE SONS OF CLAY AND WEBSTER SUPPORTING THE DEMOCRACY!

The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian gives a glowing account of an immense meeting held on the 8th inst, at the home of Mr. Buchanan. There were eight stands erected, from which speakers addressed the vast assemblage during the day and evening. We have room for only a brief reference to the speeches of the sons of Clay and Webster on the occasion.

The principal speakers at the main stand were James B. Clay and Fletcher Webster. Hon. George R. Riddle, of Delaware, introduced Messrs Clay and Webster to the assembled people in a few eloquent remarks, which elicited cheers for himself and State, and cheers for the distinguished strangers. We make the following extract from Mr. Clay's speech:

MR. CLAY'S SPEECH.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF LANCASTER AND OF PENNSYLVANIA: I come here to-day to address you under circumstances more extraordinary, perhaps, than ever surrounded any plain citizen who ever before had the pleasure to speak to you. A farmer, as you are when at home, men throughout the length and breadth of this land have heaped upon me loads of abuse and revilement for an honest and free expression of the sentiments which I have entertained. Yet I fear not, for truth ever lends its votary the courage requisite for its vindication. I am here upon a democratic stand to speak to you; and I am glad to be here, because upon it stands with myself the son of the man who stood by my father—the son of the great expounder of the constitution, the son of the revered and lamented Webster. [Immense applause.] We stand here together, and why? Does he come here to ask for your votes for himself? Do I come here on any such mission? Does he come to ask your Mr. Buchanan for anything?—Do we come to ask any favours from the democratic party? No! I tell you a thousand times, No! I ask none, and I believe Mr Webster asks none. We are here for our country. [Applause.] We came here in the cause of the Union, which is sanctified by the efforts of his father and mine. Though in their graves, Clay and Webster are not dead; such men can never die.—The have left their words as an inheritance to us; and although the mantle of Mr. Webster has not fallen upon his son, and although the mantle of Clay has not fallen upon me, his son, yet both of them have left their record for you and me and all of us to study. [Applause.] What have they told us? What do their writings tell us now? What did the Father of the Country tell us in days long gone? Washington warned us against sectionalism. He bid us beware of all parties arrayed on sectional issues.

MR. WEBSTER'S SPEECH.

The Pennsylvanian contains a full report of the speech delivered by Mr. Webster on this memorable occasion, as well as of Mr. Clay's remarks. Our limits will only permit us to make the following extracts from Mr. W.'s speech:

What brings me here? What brings me, a citizen of Massachusetts, on this platform with the gentleman from Kentucky, to meet you, the citizens of Lancaster? What motive, what common cause, has drawn us, without concert or combination or correspondence, voluntarily here, but the education and the principles which we received from our great fathers, who have gone before us, to love and stand by the Union? [Great applause.] Why, gentlemen, believing, as we do, that the perpetuity of this Union is threatened, and seeing the dreadful storm impending over us, which may burst upon us with destructive fury, if we had sat down listlessly and folded our arms, you would have expected, and we would have expected, our fathers to rise from their graves and denounce us. [Cheers.] We are but discharging a sacred duty which we owe to our God, our country, and the glorious principles for which our fathers battled, when we come forward, and lend our aid to the only party which can save the constitution and the Union. [Cheers.]

My friends, I am no orator; but I will, with your permission, have a little plain talk with you. I need not tell you that I have been a whig, and I suppose it is equally unnecessary for me to say that I am not ashamed to own it. No doubt there are a great many before me who hold a similar position with myself. All of you, certainly, could not have been originally democrats, or there would never have been a whig vote in Lancaster county. [Tremendous applause.] Well, to you, original democrats, as well as to the old-line whigs with whom I lately acted, I would address myself for a few moments, and give you the faith that is in me for being here on this platform to-day, and the reasons which have influenced me in my determination, and which I suppose have influenced other persons equally disinterested

Again, in conclusion:

We should all feel proud of our leader and of his eminent qualifications for the office for which he is a candidate. If we look over the history of the country, we will hardly turn over a page of it, for the last forty years, in which the name of Mr. Buchanan does not appear. [Applause.] There he stands, for the last forty years, side by side with the greatest and most illustrious men of the country. [Renewed applause.] If any one of his distinguished compeers were now living, if the great sage of Ashland, if Calhoun of South Carolina, or Webster, were still in the midst of their countrymen, to advise and guide them, they would be the first to do justice to his great and unsurpassed talents, and use their herculean energies in securing his success in this crisis. [Cheers.] And now, citizens of Lancaster, allow me to suggest that the present is the time for you to exert all your energies in securing the success of the principles maintained by the democratic party. The democratic ticket deserves, and should have, your hearty support on Tuesday next. Remember that the enemies of the constitution, of the Union, and of yourselves will on that day attempt to carry the State, and proclaim to the world that Pennsylvania has declared for abolition and disunion. If you love your country, now is the time for action. Now is the time for exertion, if you would preserve the Union, and send it down to your children as you received it from your fathers, with all the blessings you have enjoyed under it. Democrats and whigs, your country calls upon you to elect those who represent the principles of devotion to the Union. On Tuesday, the 14th of October, you are expected to work together for the success of national men on the democratic State ticket. After we have succeeded in defeating the factions which now threaten to overwhelm us we may quarrel on questions of policy. Now there is a fearful responsibility resting upon every citizen, and he should be careful to discharge it properly.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. Webster was heartily cheered, and retired amid many shouts of joy and welcome.

Visit of the Keystone Club to Wheatland—a thrilling scene.—The son of Henry Clay upon the door steps of James Buchanan repudiating the abolition slanders on the favorite son of Pennsylvania.

We continue our extracts from the Pennsylvanian's report:

After the adjournment of the meeting, the Keystone Club proceeded to Wheatland to pay their respects to Mr. Buchanan. They were cordially received by that gentleman, and seemed delighted with the appearance of their chief who looked hearty and happy. Cheer after cheer were given for the "Next President of the United States," and the wildest enthusiasm pervaded those who were present. The club formed in single file, and one after another walked up and had a shake of the hand and friendly greeting from Mr. Buchanan. After a short time, it being rumored that Mr. Clay was present, loud calls were made for that gentleman, to which he responded in the following language:

Fellow-citizens and gentlemen of the Keystone Club, I thank you from my heart for the kindness you have manifested towards me. It may seem strange to you that the son of Henry Clay should stand here upon the door steps of James Buchanan, his guest, after all you have heard of the unfair treatment which his father received from him, but I am not afraid to stand here. They have charged upon Mr. Buchanan that he attempted to ruin the character of my father. Fellow-citizens, I do not believe it, and I do not believe it because my father told me that he did not. [Great applause.] I tell you that, while it has often been the fate of great statesmen to be killed by their enemies, it has also sometimes been their fate to be killed by their friends, and my father suffered by the latter fate. Henry Clay was uninjured in 1825, but he received his death at the hands of his friends in Philadelphia in 1848. And yet the opponents of the democratic party talk about bargain and corruption in the year 1825. Such charges cannot influence me, for I do not believe them. I know that they are not true.—[Renewed applause.] And I know further, that they are only addressed to passion and prejudice, and not to reason and patriotism.

Fellow-citizens of the Keystone Club of Pennsylvania, you have a great duty to perform next week. Let each man of you get his harness upon him to-day, and keep it buckled on tight until the 14th, for on that day you have a greater battle to fight than was that of New Orleans. Then you fought against foreign enemies, but now you have to battle against traitors, and for the peace and security of your country.—[Cheers.] But there is another thing you have to do. We want to make Mr Buchanan President of the United States, and we must and will do it. Let us all go home with a determination to use our best efforts in his behalf. Let us keep him in our hearts and filled with admiration and love of his many good qualities, we will make a great fight for him in November and place him in triumph in the presidential chair, which destiny has reserved for him as a reward for a long life of faithful service to his country. But it will not do for us to kill him with kindness before we have elected him. Much as I love Kentucky and my friend Breckinridge, I have no disposition to see the Vice President again become President by accident. It is a President by the free choice of the people that we want, and we must not forget Mr. Buchanan is not as young as we, and that he required some rest; therefore we must now retire; we must let him rest, and rest ourselves, so as to be ready for the great battle on the 14th. I again thank you, gentlemen, for the reception which you have given me.

At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. Clay was introduced to a large number of the members of the club, and manifested much delight at seeing the enthusiasm and ardor with which they were animated. After all the members had an opportunity of paying their respects to Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Clay, and the "Glee Club" accompanying them had enlivened the proceedings by singing several capital songs, the club reluctantly took leave of Wheatland, highly gratified with their visit, and resumed their march to Lancaster.

Fremont's Great Organ Concedes the Election of Buchanan!

THE NEW YORK HERALD ON THE STATE OF THE CANVASS.

[From the N. Y. Herald, Oct. 20th.]

THE GREAT CONTEST—THE REVOLUTION AND THE COUNTER-REVOLUTION.

The last returns from Pennsylvania seem to indicate that the democrats have carried the State by not less than four thousand majority; while the telegraphic accounts from Indiana give the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Legislature all to the democracy. These returns are not absolutely reliable, and may be largely modified by further intelligence; but there is enough in the results already before us to show that a most prodigious effort has been made by the democracy, both North and South, to create a counter-revolution in their favor, and to stem back the tide of which the first rolling waves overwhelmed them at the late elections in Maine, Iowa and Vermont. Unexampled efforts have been made, both by speakers and writers in the North as well as the South, to work upon the national feeling of the commercial classes in the central States. One after another, Southern democratic Governors, democratic Senators and democratic office-holders under the general government, have been prompted to threaten the North with disunion in case of the defeat of the democratic candidate; no consideration of decency, of loyalty, of common respect for the North, was allowed to interfere with the business of bullying the Northern merchants into the support of Mr. Buchanan. No doubt, to us, the threats of disunion, the talk of civil war and forced marches on Washington appear very poor and sorry stuff; but no matter how sorry and absurd they were, they indicated a diseased state of the public mind in the South; and that diseased state of mind was enough to alarm the commercial classes in the central States, where nearly all the commercial interests of the country are concentrated. To this cause we must undoubtedly ascribe the sudden check of the popular revolution, and the recent probable victories in Pennsylvania and Indiana.

These, however, are mere skirmishes—the preliminaries of the great battle to be fought on the first Tuesday in November. The moral effect of the recent elections will tell in favor of Mr. Buchanan and the democracy; and it will be felt more especially in the central states—New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois—all, except perhaps, Ohio. If, at the great onset of next month, the administration and the democracy can follow up the advantage they have already gained, and bring their whole forces to bear with vigor upon these central States, they may probably carry them all, and thus not only elect Buchanan triumphantly, but also elect a majority of Congress, pledged in support of the views and principles embraced by the democracy in the present contest.

These views and principles are of a very remarkable character. The victory of Buchanan and a democratic majority in Congress, sweep at once to the winds and to oblivion all the efforts of the North in reference to slavery, and all their aims with regard to its non-extension. Such a result as this would, as a matter of course, establish slavery in Kansas, and complete the work begun by Jefferson Davis and Mr. Pierce; it would confirm and inaugurate the doctrines of the Ostend manifesto, and would proclaim to the world that the government of the United States, with the full and deliberate sanction of the people of the United States, was prepared to wrest from its owners Cuba, or any other foreign dependency whose acquisition it chose to consider desirable for the due development of this country and its destined march among nations. Instead of a few doughfaces, here and there, as the democratic members from the North, who supported the repeal of the Missouri compromise, were called, it would be found that the whole of the central States of the Union were doughface States. These results, produced by the panic aroused about the Union, and the absolute necessity of keeping the South in the confederacy by supporting its measures and electing its nominees, would at least settle the history of the country for many years to come, and would give to the democracy an ascendancy which, with the least prudence, they might retain for four or five Presidential terms.

Further inquiry into the causes of the sudden check received by the popular revolution with which Fremont has become identified, discloses a variety of flaws in the organization and discipline of the revolutionary party itself. Instead of laboring harmoniously and zealously for the defeat of the democracy, the opposition has frittered away its strength in conflicts of its own, dividing its forces between two candidates, and wasting its energies on ridiculous issues, such as the religion, the identity, and the birth-place of its chief candidate, instead of entering into a statesmanlike discussion of the high questions of policy depending on the issue laid before the people. The press and the politicians have been equally at fault. The nomination of Fremont at first received a vast and sudden popularity by the efforts of the independent press radiating from this metropolis. But, unfortunately, there followed a backward, and one might almost think, a treacherous movement, on the part of the politicians of the same party, whose influence seems to have been exercised, sometimes openly, sometimes secretly, to defeat Colonel Fremont. Add to these the foolish local nominations that have been made, incoherent stump speakers and injudicious newspaper support, and something will be seen of the causes which have marred the prosperity of that opposition, which, two years ago, was so strong, so coherent, so full of promise of ultimate success.

Then what is to be done? Nothing can prevent the triumph and election of Buchanan, and an equal triumph in the House of Representatives, involving, as a matter of course, the forcible acquisition of Cuba and the establishment of slavery in Kansas, but some new and energetic policy on the part of all the friends of Fremont, including the honest rank and file who support Fillmore. IF FILLMORE REMAINS ANOTHER WEEK IN THE FIELD, IT WILL MERELY BE DONE IN THE HOPE OF SUPPORTING BUCHANAN, AND THE TRIUMPH OF PRO-SLAVERY. That will be decisive, and we may as well prepare for that result as for any other.

MR. HEDRICK DISMISSED.

We learn that at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, held at the governors office on Saturday last, Mr. Hedrick was unanimously dismissed from his place as a Professor in the University of this State.

We make this announcement with much gratification, though we felt sure from the first that such would be the action of the Executive Committee.

We have received a number of communications on the subject, and several from Trustees of the University, the publication of which has been rendered unnecessary by this action of the Committee.

Mr. Black Republican Hedrick may now turn for consolation and support to his abolition brethren of the free States. His whole conduct in this matter has been not only in direct opposition to the best interests of the University, but it is marked with the grossest ingratitude; and he has shown, by holding on to his place after he had been notified that his usefulness was gone, that he is insensible to those impulses and considerations which never fail to operate on a high-toned and honorable man. Informed that he had ceased to be useful, he begged for time and at last had to be dismissed!—Mr. Hedrick, we believe, is a beneficiary of the University; and he was sent to Cambridge on a salary, and sustained there while acquiring and perfecting his knowledge in Agricultural Chemistry. Warmed into life on the hearthstone of the University, the viper turned upon his Alma Mater and upon the State of his nativity with his envenomed fangs. But he has been cast out, and is powerless for evil.—If the abolitionists should take him up, the history of his conduct here will follow him; and they will know, as he will feel, that they have received to their bosom a dangerous, but congenial and ungrateful thing.—Standard.

BENEFIT OF THE SPRINGS.

A lady brought a child to a physician to consult him about its precious health. Among other things she enquired if he did not think the springs would be useful?

'Certainly, madam,' replied the doctor, as he eyed the child, and then took a large pinch of snuff; 'I haven't the least hesitation in recommending the springs—and the sooner you apply the remedy the better.'

'You really think it would be good for the dear little thing, don't you?

'Upon my word its the best remedy I know of.'

What springs do you recommend, doctor

'Any will do, madam, where you can get plenty of soap and water.'

'I say, friend, is there anything to shoot about here?' asked a Kentucky sportsman of a little boy.

Boy—"Wal, nothing just about here, stranger, but the schoolmaster is down hill, yonder—you mought pop him over.'

Election: TUESDAY, November 4th.

THE RETURNS!

We earnestly request our friends at the different precincts to send us the returns as soon after closing the polls as possible.

THE DAY!

☞ Recollect, brother Democrats, that TUESDAY NEXT, the 4th of November, is election day. That is the day upon which all good Democrats are invoked to turn out and cast their votes for those distinguished champions of Democracy—BUCHANAN AND BRECKINRIDGE! Remember the day and the cause!

Newland in the Field!

The sterling Democracy of Newland—the staunch Democratic precinct of the county—raised a noble hickory pole eighty feet high in honor of Buchanan and Breckinridge on Monday last. The Democracy of that neighborhood are fully aroused, and Newland will give a good account of herself on the day of election. We bid them a hearty God-speed in the good work.

TURN OUT!

We earnestly appeal to our friends to turn out on TUESDAY NEXT, and devote one day to their country! The issues involved in the pending election are of a most serious character—and we trust that the Democracy will turn out in full force, and work like men for their principles and their country! A day—but one single day—is all that is asked; and it is earnestly hoped that patriots will give that day to the service of their country!

A CHANCE.

Some of the Know Nothings profess to believe that Fillmore will be elected President of the United States. A gentleman has placed in our hands $300, which we are authorized to bet that Fillmore will not be elected President of the United States for the next term. Walk up, Messrs. Know Nothings, and back your judgment with your money. We have no idea that there is "back-bone" enough in the Fillmourners hereabouts to take this bet.

Superior Court.

The Fall Term of our Superior Court was held last week, and the entire session was consumed in trying the State docket. His Honor, Judge Bailey, presided with his accustomed dignity and ability. Zion Turner, free negro, was convicted of manslaughter, and branded. The young Butts, charged with the murder of Robert Childrey, their step-father, were arraigned; and, after the delivery of all the testimony on both sides, a verdict of acquittal was entered upon the record without the jury's retiring from their box—his Honor intimating that the State had failed to make out a case.

The case of the three Davises, indicted for the murder of Capt. Spencer Sawyer, was removed by the State to the County of Gates, and the parties were ordered to jail, there to remain until the next term of the Superior Court of Gates County, in April next—bail being refused.

☞ We direct the attention of the reader to a remarkable article from the New York Herald, on our first page. The Herald is the great organ of J. C. Fremont, and cordially hates Mr. Buchanan and the Democracy. Yet it virtually concedes the election of James Buchanan.—When the Herald gives up, there must really be little hope for the opponents of James Buchanan.

ADMIRABLE LOGIC!

The Know Nothings told us that if Pennsylvania went against the Democracy, Mr. Buchanan would stand no chance at all—it would ruin his prospects. But now, forsooth, since the State has gone for the Democracy and against the Know Nothings, they tell us that their chances are just about as good as ever, if not a little better! If our party were defeated, we were ruined; but if their party were overthrown, they would be as well off as ever! Well, we reckon so too. Bad eggs don't spoil fast.

TEXT FOR K. N. STUMP SPEAKERS.—The glorious achievements of Know Nothingism at the late elections!

The Democracy of Pasquotank aroused!

ELOQUENT SPEECHES AND ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING!

With but a single day's notice, the largest and most enthusiastic Democratic meeting ever held in this county, especially at night, was held in the Court House in this Town on Tuesday night last. A number of our friends from the country remained in Town to enjoy the "feast of reason and flow of soul" in store for them, while our Town Democracy turned out en masse. A number of Know Nothings were also there. The good news from Pennsylvania, Indiana and Florida, coupled with the fact that two able speakers were announced to address them, gave to the meeting a degree of interest rarely felt. Wm. C. Hunter, Esq., was called to preside, and, the meeting having been brought to order—

Dr. PIEMONT took the rostrum, and for more than an hour, held his large audience spell-bound by one of the most chaste, eloquent and effective speeches we have heard during the canvass. Strong and convincing in argument, his speech abounded in scathing sarcasm, withering irony, and overwhelming invective. His well-directed blows fell thick and fast, and the K. N's writhed awfully under the terrible flagellation to which he subjected them with a skilful and unsparing hand. During the delivery of this speech, the eloquent speaker was repeatedly interrupted with loud bursts of enthusiastic and long-continued applause.

R. R. HEATH, Esq., next took the stand, in response to vociferous calls from the meeting, and delivered an admirable address—admirable for its happy grouping of facts, its irresistible logic, and its unanswerable arguments. We will not attempt a description of this eloquent speech. It was worthy of the great mind and generous heart of its distinguished author; and his audience evinced their keen appreciation of its merits by frequent volcanic shouts of spontaneous and irrepressible applause.

At the conclusion of Mr. Heath's speech, loud calls were made for W. F. MARTIN, Esq., and that gentleman came forward and delivered a brief but eloquent and stirring address, which was received with an enthusiasm that never fails to greet his efforts.

After which the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for Buchanan and Breckinridge—three for Mr. Heath, and three for Dr. Piemont.

Pasquotank County will give a good account of herself on election day.

GALLANT LITTLE FLORIDA!

The Know Nothings have held on to Florida with a death-like gripe. They claimed her any how—she had gone for them, let other States go as they would.—Alas! and alas! even this little hope has failed them—this crumb of comfort is denied them—and, as Bennett says, the corner-stone of Fillmore's edifice is yet to be laid! The Baltimore Patriot at last gives up the ghost; and we quote the Patriot simply because no K. N. would be guilty of the heresy of questioning its reports.—That paper is their political guide, and they would as soon question the Crucifixion as deny its authority. Here, then, is the "last gun" of the Patriot:

SPECIAL DISPATCH.

The Last Gun from Florida—The State Democratic.

MOBILE, Oct. 19.—The Tribune has received complete returns from Florida, which show the election of M. S. Perry, the Democratic candidate as Governor by 400 majority over David S. Walker, American, and also Geo. S. Hawkins, Democrat, to Congress by 800 majority over J. M. Barker, American.

The Legislature is also Democratic, which secures a U. S. Senator of that stripe to succeed Hon. Stephen R. Mallory, whose term expires in 1857.

We hope the K. N.'s will be satisfied now that they have not carried a single State yet! Poor fellows!

KNOW NOTHING SPEECHES.

Not having heard the speeches delivered at the late little mass meeting in this Town, we have foreborne to make any comments upon them. But we have before us, in the "Sentinel" of Saturday, an authentic and official criticism of said speeches, attested by R. K. Speed, President, and W. E. Mann and C. W. Grandy, Jr., Secretaries. This account, being thus authenticated, is of course correct—or at least the K. N's are estopped from any objection to it. It will be seen that Col. Outlaw's "strong and powerful voice" is credited for having "made his speech have a powerful effect;" while Col. Spruill "entertained" his hearers with a "lively" and "entertaining" speech! But here is the official report, in extenso, word for word, as given in the "Sentinel":

Col. Spruill's Speech.

The meeting being organized, the President introduced to the audience Col. S. B. Spruill, of Bertie, who entertained his hearers for the space of one hour and a quarter, in one of his lively and entertaining speeches.

Dr. Speed's Speech.

After he concluded, Dr. Speed arose, and delivered one of the most eloquent speeches of the canvass—he spoke for some 2½ hours.

Col. Outlaw's Speech.

Dr. Speed having concluded, Hon. David Outlaw arose and for the space of nearly an hour rivetted the attention of his hearers—the strong and powerful voice of the Hon. gentleman made his speech have a powerful effect—it was a speech breathing nothing but 'Union' 'UNION' 'UNION.'

☞ Hon. Solomon Foot has been re-elected to the United States Senate by the Legislature of Vermont.

A LAST APPEAL.

This is the last issue of our paper that can go out to our country readers before the great battle of Tuesday next will have been fought and won—a battle fraught with so much of weal or woe to our beloved country; and we desire to avail ourself of the present opportunity to address a few last words to our friends.

We are upon the eve of a great struggle. That struggle will decide the question of political supremacy for the next four years at least, and possibly forever! If Buchanan is elected, the country will move on in its present career of prosperity—all the great interests of all sections will be protected, and this glorious Union will be preserved from the vandal assaults of domestic traitors. But should Fremont be elected, this Union with its countless blessings and priceless memories will surely be wrecked upon the reefs of civil discord. This is the great issue. Let us awake to its deep importance.

In all the State elections at the South held during the last few months, the Democracy have been triumphantly successful. They have carried every State. The Know Nothings have not carried one. In the North, too, the Democracy have made a gallant fight. They have carried the great State of Pennsylvania in the teeth of one of the most complete and infamous conspiracies ever recorded. They have swept Indiana with a rush, and also Connecticut and Delaware. This is what they have done. They will do more. Illinois, California, Michigan, New York and New Jersey, of the Northern States, with the entire South, will come up nobly to the work of supporting Buchanan.

All the States that have gone against us—four in number—have gone for the Black Republicans. It thus appears that the only formidable parties in the field are the Democratic and Black Republican; for, since the K. N's have so far failed to carry a single State, it is not reasonable to suppose that they can do so. On the contrary, it is fair to presume that the more sensible and calculating of that party, seeing the hopelessness of electing Fillmore, will join one of the other parties, as their impulses or policy may suggest—for men are not very fond of fighting against a dead beat. They do not like to waste their energies for nothing. It is not pleasant.

Such being the case, the question presented is, whether Fremont or Buchanan shall be elected? That is the question. Shall Black Republicanism rule the country, or shall the time-honored Democracy continue to rule it? Brother Democrats!—men of the South! we conjure you by every consideration of patriotism to march up to the polls on Tuesday next and record your votes for that ticket which will secure to you and your children the rich blessings we all now enjoy—the ticket upon which are inscribed the names of those distinguished statesmen—JAMES BUCHANAN and JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE!

DEMOCRATS!

Let us be up and doing! Let not a disgraceful apathy mar the moral force of our victory. North Carolina will surely cast her vote for James Buchanan; but that should not satisfy us. We should strive to pile up an immense majority. Let us not stand still where we are. But let us mend our licks—improve our advantages—and move forward in our bright and glorious career. We have got the whip hand of the Know Nothings, and we should steadily hold it, and advance upon it. We are buoyant—the Know Nothings are dispirited. Nothing can prevent our crushing them out effectually, except our own apathy. Rouse up, then, brother Democrats! Let us make a long pull—a strong pull—and a pull all together, and the day will be ours by such a majority as will rejoice the heart of every true Democrat and patriot! Up, Guards! and at 'em!

EVERY DEMOCRAT

Should vote and act as if a very high responsibility rested upon him individually; for a single vote often decides the most momentous issues, and each one should acquit his conscience of all cause of blame, by promptly and patriotically doing his whole duty.

HORACE GREELEY INDICTED.—We learn from the Clarksburg (Va.) Register that at the recent term of the Harrison Circuit Court, the grand jury found about seventy indictments. Of these one was against Horace Greeley for circulating in Harrison county his "Tribune," which was considered by the grand jurors as incendiary in its character. Two citizens of the county were presented for aiding in the circulation of that print.

SUFFOLK AND EDENTON RAILROAD.—All persons friendly to the project of effecting a communication by Railroad from Edenton, N. C., via Gatesville, either to the Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad, or to the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad, at or near Suffolk, are requested to meet in the town of Gatesville, on Monday, the 17th day of November next, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

THANKSGIVING.—Gov. Bragg has issued his proclamation, appointing Thursday, 20th November, as a day of general thanksgiving throughout the State.

☞ Let every Democrat consider himself a Committee of Vigilance on Tuesday next, and remember that "the price of Liberty is eternal vigilance."

POSTING THE BOOKS.

Thus far, says the Union, this year elections have been held in sixteen States, twelve of which have been carried by the democrats, and four by the opposition.—The followirg table shows the electoral vote of these States:

DEMOCRATIC STATES.
Kentucky	12
North Carolina	10
Missouri	9
Arkansas	4
Alabama	9
Texas	4
Delaware	3
Florida	3
Connecticut	6
South Carolina	8
Pennsylvania	27
Indiana	13
	108
OPPOSITION STATES.
Iowa	4
Vermont	5
Maine	8
Ohio	23
	40
RECAPITULATION.
Democratic States	108
Opposition States	40

Democratic electoral majority thus far 68

Assuming—and it is an assumption which no sane person will be disposed to dispute—that there will be no change in the States which have been placed in the column, we give below an estimate of the probable result in the election in November next, which, to our mind, has all the "surroundings" of certainty:

BUCHANAN AND BRECKINRIDGE	Electoral votes.
States in which elections have been held this year as given above	108
Virginia	15
Mississippi	7
Louisiana	6
Maryland	8
Tennessee	12
Georgia	10
New Hampshire	5
New Jersey	7
California	4
Illinois	11
Michigan	6
	199

The above shows a grand total of fifty more electoral votes than are required to elect Mr. Buchanan. We believe that his majority will exceed, rather than fall short of, the figures given, as his chances to carry several other States are fully equal to those of Mr. Fillmore or Mr. Fremont.

The victory is already ours, provided our friends remain in the field with their arms in their hands. Let no democrat quit the ranks under the supposition that his services will not be needed in November next. Every vote is needed, if not to secure victory, at least to swell the glorious triumph that awaits us.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—The following is a summary of the laws and constitutional requirements in the election of a President and Vice President:

1. Electors elected on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

2. Electors meet on the first Wednesday in December and cast their votes. They then sign three certificates—send a messenger with one copy to the President of the Senate at Washington before the first Wednesday in January—another by mail to the same person, and the third deliver to the United States District Judge where electors meet.

3. Each State provides by law for filling any vacancy in the Board of Electors occasioned by absence, death, or resignation. Such of the electors as are present are generally authorized to fill any vacancy.

4. The Governor gives notice to electors of their election before the first Wednesday in December.

5. On the second Wednesday in February, Congress shall be in session and open the returns. The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the House of Representatives, open the certificate of returns, and count the votes. The person having the greatest number of votes for President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors, shall be the President.

6. If no person has a majority as above, the choice is to be made from the three highest returned. The members of the House, by States, form themselves into Electoral Committees, and the majority determine which is to be the choice of the State—each State having only one vote.

7. If neither of the candidates get a majority of the States before the 4th of March, then the Vice-President shall act as President.

8. If the people do not elect through their Electors a Vice-President, then the Senate of the United States shall make the election from the two highest candidates returned to them by the electors.

☞ Arthur's Home Magazine, for November, has been received. This is one of the best periodicals that we receive, and in addition to other fine embellishments, it will hereafter contain a beautiful colored steel fashion plate in every number.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book, for November, has also been received. Godey is behind none of his competitors in the work of catering to the tastes of ladies especially and the public generally.

THE STRENGTH OF JAMES BUCHANAN IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Greely and Bennett, and most of that stripe of political brigands, having placed their hopes of success in Pennsylvania upon the Fusion State ticket, will now be considerably puzzled to decide what course to pursue in reference to the State in November. Thadeus Stevens and David Wilmot are equally at a loss how to manage the Fillmore men so as to enforce them into another bargain. We can tell all these gentry in a few plain words that the day for their experiments upon Pennsylvania has passed. The day for their tricks is over. They can no longer operate upon the supposed credulity of our people.—Their expedients and their machinations will all give way when they are put to the test. They may mine and countermine, they may hide their tracks as craftily as they please—they may assume all sorts of disguises, and adopt every variety of name—they may go down into the lodges of Know Nothingism, or mount upon the house-tops, there is one obstacle that will baffle all their designs, and defeat all their artifices, and that is, the admitted strength of James Buchanan among the people of his native State. This is the phantom they have feared all the time.

It was to avoid meeting him and the Democratic party in November, that they have tried, during a campaign of unheard of violence, and of unprecedented effort, to break the force of his influence upon the country, and at his own home; but now the hour of their doom is approaching, they must meet old Buck upon his own soil, they must meet Pennsylvania's favorite son in the vallies and upon the mountains of good old Pennsylvania herself, and they will soon—too soon—find that all the fears which they have entertained in reference to him were only too well founded. Thaddeus Stevens' prediction will be abundantly verified. He declared after Judge McKean's defeat in the sectional Philadelphia Convention, that James Buchanan would carry Pennsylvania by fifty thousand majority. That is the figure, and we will not take one less. One blast upon the bugle horn of James Buchanan in the contest soon to be decided, is worth a thousand men not only, but ten thousand, yea twenty thousand at the back of it. When our population comes to regard the spotless purity of his life, the long and honorable record of his public career, his high capacities, and the unbroken current of his national antecedents, they will throw aside their prejudices and rush to his banner with enthusiasm.

CLEAR THE TRACK FOR JAMES BUCHANAN.
Pennsylvanian

The Visit of the Governors.

There are some persons so perverted by envy, by disappointed ambition and by other similar causes, that they become spiteful and malicious, and render themselves not only disagreeable and ridiculous, but absolutely intolerable. Such seems to be the nature of him, whoever he be, that penned an article published in the Raleigh Register of the 15th inst., in regard to the visit of Gov. Wise and Gov. Adams to our City.

There is a certain courtesy due to officials like these, coming on a friendly visit from friendly sister States, that no high-minded, honorable man can disregard. Yet the Register has seen fit to abuse and villify them. It has seen fit to impute to them motives of the basest kind. It has seen fit to insinuate that they met to concoct a scheme of treason, and that they were invited here for that purpose by Gov. Bragg. We appeal to the one hundred thousand voters of North Carolina, and we ask them, do you believe Thomas Bragg would invite men to the soil of North Carolina to plan treason or disunion? An indignant NO will reverberate from the seashore to the mountains.

And has it come to pass that the honored sons of adjoining States cannot visit North Carolina without being insulted and abused by a press, venerable for its age, but now distinguished by no other quality that can gain it respect? So far as the influence of the Register extends, so far have these Governors been insulted, and so far has the proud reputation of North Carolina for her hospitality, suffered. We thank God that influence does not extend beyond the walls of the Register office and the envious spirits that control it. Every true-hearted son of the State will rise up to condemn such conduct.

Who are these Governors? One comes from our sister State of Virginia, and the other from our sister State of South Carolina. They are patriots and true-hearted Southern men. They stand upon the Constitution and their rights as guaranteed by it; and the Register's puny attacks upon them will affect them no more than was the moon affected by the baying of the dog. The former comes covered with the laurels of victory over Know Nothingism, and hence we can account for the spleen of the Register in that direction. The latter comes from a gallant State that has ever known and dared maintain its rights against federalism, and hence the petty spite of the Register towards him.

It may be a matter of conjecture among the people what course the Register would pursue towards the K. N. Black Republican Governors of Massachusetts and Ohio if they should visit our State. We are satisfied of one fact: It would not abuse them more heartily than it has Gov. Wise and Gov. Adams. It might—mind, we only say it might—call to see them, merely as an act of courtesy.

The Register says, "When there is an actual invasion of those (Southern) rights, the South will stand as ONE MAN." We wish we thought so; but from the recent course of the Register, we fear there is at least "one man" who would stand off, and we much fear he has several sympathisers and advisers.

The Register concludes its article by propounding some questions to us, which we shall not condescend to reply to. It will be recollected we refused to enter into argument with Mr. Hedrick. Our reasons for not replying to these questions are not precisely the same as governed us in that matter; but the principle on which we act is the same in both. This much, however, we say: The questions insinuate falsehood on their face. Both the Governors left here before a vote was polled in Pennsylvania.—Raleigh Standard.

☞ A lady, being in want of a dyer, was referred to an excellent workman, some thing of a wag in his line. The lady called and asked: 'Are you a dyeing man?' 'No, ma'am, I'm a living man; but I'll dye for you!' promptly replied the man of many colors, putting the emphasis where it was needed.

THE CAMELS IN TEXAS.

The Galveston News contains corespondence from Castroville, Medina county, Texas, dated the 19th ult., from which we take the following interesting particulars in relation to the camels which have lately been imported there by the United States Government:

I had also the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Major Wayne, for several years attached to the War Department, who went out last year to Asia and introduced the camels into this country, which arrived at Indianola last spring, and are now kept at this post. It has been selected by him as the best adapted to that service for which he intends them. When we arrived they were out grazing, some two miles distant, attended by the Arabs who have charge of them, when Major Wayne very kindly sent out and had them driven in for our inspection. There are altogether thirty-two, including some young ones, and all are in excellent health, and seem to be doing well.

The males are kept separate from the females, in the coryell, and when all were housed and we had examined them carefully, accompanied by Maj. Wayne, who gave us a very interesting account of their habits and peculiarities, he ordered one of them to be led out and loaded as if for a journey. After kneeling to receive the pack-saddle, a most cumbrous load of itself, but such as are used in the country from which they came, a load of corn was placed on the animal's back, sufficient for two mules to draw in a wagon, with which he started off at a good round pace. A dromedary was next led out, which is the saddle animal of the camel, and after kneeling to receive the saddle, he was mounted by an Arab, who started off across the prairie at a pace which seemed to me not much short of a two forty lick. This pace they can keep up for hours in succession, travelling with perfect ease from eighty to one hundred miles per day. They can also subsist for several days without water, and their adaptability to the frontier service for which they are designed, is now a matter beyond doubt. Maj. Wayne informed me that he had forty more animals coming out, and he is now building a stable in which they will be kept, which he expects to get finished before the cold weather sets in.

I NEVER GOSSIP.

Oh no, I never gossip! I have enough to do to take care of my business without talking about the affairs of others, Mrs. Smith. Why there's Mrs Crocker, she deals in scandal by wholesale; it does seem to me as though that woman's tongue must be almost worn out; but no, there's no danger of that. If every body was like me there wouldn't be much trouble in the world. Oh, no, I never gossip. But, did you ever know that Miss Elliot had got a new silk dress, Mrs. Smith? You didn't! Well she has; it's a real brocade; I saw it myself. I do say it's shameful for her to be so extravagant; I mean to give her a piece of my mind. Mrs. Smith. You believe her uncle gave it to her? Well, I don't care if he did; why, it is only two months since her father failed, and now, to see her dash out in this style, it's a burning shame. I suppose she thinks she's going to catch young lawyer Standhope, but I guess she'll find herself mistaken; he's got more sense than to be caught by her, if she has a brocade silk dress.

And there's the upstart dress maker, Kate Manly, setting her cap for the doctor's son; the impertinence of some people is perfectly astonishing. I don't think she's any better than she ought to be, for my own part; I never liked her, with her smile, soft look, when any one's round; my word for it, she can look cross enough when there ain't; then, she says she's only seventeen! Goodness knows she's as old as my Arabella Lucretia, and she's—well, I wont say how old, but she's more'n seventeen, and I ain't ashamed to say so, either; but I guess Dr. Manly's son will have more discretion than to think of marrying her. Some folks call her handsome? Well I don't. She ain't half as good looking as my daughter Jane. Then the way she does up her hair in such fly-away curls; and, if you believe it Mrs. Smith, she actually had the impudence to tell me that she couldn't make her hair as straight as my Mary Jane's. Impertinence! if she'd let curling papers and curling irons alone, I'd risk but what her hair would be as straight as anybody's.

But what do you think of the minister's wife, Mrs. Smith? You like her! Well all I can say is, you've got a very peculiar taste. Why she's proud as Lucifer; been married a whole week; and hasn't been to see me yet. You presume she hasn't had time? I don't see what the minister wanted to go out of town to get a wife for, any how; and then, above all things, to get that little girlish looking thing. Why didn't he take one of his parishioners?—There's my Arabella Lucretia would have made him a better wife than he's got now. Then she's just about the right age for him. She's two years older than the minister! I should think it was a pity if I didn't know my own daughter's age, Mrs. Smith! If some folks would mind their own business as I do, I'd thank 'em!—Waverly Magazine.

FIGHT ON—FIGHT EVER.

The first great victory in this tremendous struggle, says the Pennsylvanian, has been won in this State by the Democracy. The contest is not yet over. The snake is scotched, not killed. Let no one be lulled into repose and indifference—into a false security because our enemies are crushed and overwhelmed. Relax not a muscle. If you sleep, let it be with your armor on. Remember we have 50,000 majority to obtain for James Buchanan in November, and it is a majority worth working for.

VIOLENT ASSAULT.—On Tuesday evening, Mr. Richard D. Addington, late of Richmond, made a desperate assault on his brother, Mr. Wm. H. Addington, shoe dealer, inflicting three very severe blows on his head, we learn, with a slung shot. Mr. A. is under skillful treatment by Dr. Moore, but yesterday the symptoms were more alarming. His brother was arrested and placed in jail. As the unpleasant affair will be investigated, before the proper authorities, we forbear entering into details.—Argus.

☞ Our talented Elector, William F. Martin, Esq., addressed the people of Camden yesterday. He will close the canvass on Monday next in Currituck County.

NOTICE YOUR BALLOTS.—We give you warning in time—there is a villainous shrewd trick on hand, to cheat Democrats out of their votes. The know nothings have commenced too early—or rather they did'nt get up quite soon enough in the morning, to play that game successfully. Tickets are being printed, we know not where, but we shrewdly suspect in Raleigh, headed "Democratic Ticket" and containing the names of the know nothing electors on them. They are intended for use in the country, to deceive and swindle the honest yeomanry, the unsuspicious farmer and the unwary voter. We have seen some of them—and again we urge you, Democrats, to beware of the imposition. We would especially direct the attention of the Democrats at the different country precincts in this and adjoining counties to this attempted fraud.—Fayetteville Carolinian.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned having entered into copartnership some time since in the brick making business, would inform the public they have purchased one of Sands and Cumming's patent Brick Machines and have it now in successful operation at their brick yard about one mile from Elizabeth City, and that they have and intend to keep on hand a sufficient supply of brick to meet the demands of the country. Their yard is situated on Knob's Creek—a navigable stream of sufficient size for vessels that usually navigate our waters about half mile from Pasquotank River. Their Kiln is only some few feet rom the wharf where vessels can lay to take in their load

D. U. BRIGGS,
JOHN BLACK.

P. S.—Any person wishing to procure a Brick Machine can get any information they may desire relative to Sands and Cumming's Patent Brick Machine both in regard to the purchase of machines, rights, and of its working capacity by applying to the undersigned.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions at the Cincinnati Convention.

The Committee on Resolutions, by their chairman, Mr. Hallett of Massachusetts, submitted the following report, which was adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That the American Democracy place their trust in the intelligence, the patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people.

Resolved, That we regard this as a distinctive feature of our political creed, which we are proud to maintain before the world, as the great moral element in a form of government springing from and upheld by the popular will; and we contrast it with the creed and practice of Federalism, under whatever name or form, which seeks to palsy the will of the constituent, and which conceives no imposture too monstrous for the popular credulity.

Resolved, therefore, That, entertaining these views, the Democratic party of this Union, through their Delegates assembled in a general Convention, coming together in a spirit of concord, of devotion to the doctrines and faith of a free representative government, and appealing to their fellow citizens for the rectitude of their intentions, renew and re-assert before the American people, the declarations of principles avowed by them, when, on former occasions, in general Convention, they have presented their candidates for the popular suffrages.

1. That the Federal Government is one of limited power, derived solely from the Constitution; and the grants of power made therein ought to be strictly construed by all the departments and agents of the government; and that it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful constitutional powers.

2. That the Constitution does not confer upon the Government the power to commence and carry on a general system of internal improvements.

3. That the Constitution does not confer uthority upon the Federal Government, directly or indirectly, assume the debts of the several States, contracted for local and internal improvements, or other State purposes; nor would such assumption be just or expedient.

4. That justice and sound policy forpib the Federal Government to foster one branch of industry to the detriment of any other, or to cherish the interests of one portion to the injury of another portion of our common country; that every citizen and every section of the country has a right to demand and insist upon an equality of rights and privileges, and to complete and ample protection of persons and property from domestic violence for foreign aggression.

5. That it is the duty of every branch of Government to enforce and practice the most rigid economy in conducting our public affairs, and that no more revenue ought to be raised than is required to defray the necessary expenses of the Government, and for the gradual, but certain extinction of the public debt.

6. That the proceeds of the public land ought to be sacredly applied to the national objects specified in the Constitution; and that we are opposed to any law for the distribution of such proceeds among the States, as alike inexpedient in policy and repugnant to the Constitution.

7. That Congress has no power to charter a national bank; that we believe such an institution one of deadly hostility to the best interests of the country, dangerous to our republican institutions and the liberties of the people, and calculated to place the business of the country within the control of a concentrated money power, and above the laws and the will of the people; and that the results of Democratic legislation in this and all other financial measures upon which issues have been made between the two political parties of the country, have demonstrated to candid and practical men of all parties, their soundness, safety, and utility, in all business pursuits.

8. That the separation of the moneys of the Government from banking institutions is indispensable for the safety of the funds of the Government, and the rights of the people.

9. That we are opposed to taking from the President the qualified veto power, by which he is enabled, under restrictions and responsibilities amply sufficient to guard the public interests, to suspend the passage of a bill whose merits cannot secure the approval of two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, until the judgment of the people can be obtained thereon, and which has saved the American people from the corrupt and tyrannical domination of the Bank of the United States, and from a corrupting system of general internal improvements.

10. That the liberal principles embodied by Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, and sanctioned in the Constitution, which makes ours the land of liberty, and the asylum of the oppressed of every nation, have ever been cardinal principles in the Democratic faith, and every attempt to bridge the privilege of becoming citizens and the owners of soil among us, ought to be resisted with the same spirit which swept the alien and sedition laws from our statute books.

And whereas, since the foregoing declaration was uniformly adopted by our predecessors in National Conventions, an adverse political and religious test has been secretly organized by a party claiming to be exclusively American, it is proper that the American Democracy should clearly define its relations thereto, and declare its determined opposition to all secret political societies, by whatever name they may be called.

Resolved, That the foundation of this Union of States having been laid in and its prosperity, expansion and pre-eminent example in free Government, built upon entire freedom in matters of religious concernment and no respect of persons in regard to rank or place of birth, no party can justly be deemed national, constitutional, or in accordance with American principles, which bases its exclusive organization upon religious opinions and accidental birth-place. And hence a political crusade in the nineteenth century, and in the United States of America, against Catholics and foreign born, is neither justified by the past history or the future prospects of the country, nor in unison with the spirit of toleration and enlarged freedom which peculiarly distinguishes the American system of popular government.

Resolved, That we reiterate with renewed energy of purpose the well considered declarations of former Conventions upon the sectional issue of domestic slavery, and concerning the reserved rights of the States,—

1. That Congress has no power under the Constitution, to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of everything appertaining to their own affairs, not prohibited by the Constitution; that all efforts of the abolitionists or others, made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take incipient steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most alarming and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union, and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

2. That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace, the whole subject of slavery agitation in Congress; and therefore, the Democratic party of the Union, standing on this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the acts known as the Compromise Measures, settled by the Congress of 1850; "the act for reclaiming fugitives from service or labor," included; which act being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

3. That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at renewing, in Congress or out of it, the agitation of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

4. That the Democratic party will faithfully abide by and uphold the principles laid down in the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions of 1798, and in the report of Mr. Madison to the Virginia Legislature, in 1799; that it adopts those principles as constituting one of the main foundations of its political creed, and is resolved to carry them out in their obvious meaning and import.

And that we may more distinctly meet the issues on which a sectional party, subsisting exclusively on slavery agitation, now relies to test the fidelity of the people, North and South, to the Constitution and the Union—

Resolved, That claiming fellowship with and desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, as the paramount issue, and repudiating all sectional parties and platforms concerning domestic slavery, which seek to embroil the States and incite to treason and armed resistance to law in the Territories, and whose avowed purposes, if consummated, must end in civil war and disunion, the American Democracy recognise and adopt the principles contained in the organic laws establishing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, as embodying the only sound and safe solution of the slavery question upon which the great national idea of the people of this whole country can repose in its determined conservatism of the Union; non-interference by Congress with slavery in State and Territory, or in the District of Columbia.

2. That this was the basis of the Compromise of 1850, confirmed by both the Democratic and Whig parties in National Conventions, ratified by the people in the election of 1852, and rightly applied to the organization of Territories in 1854.

3. That by the uniform application of this democratic principle to the organization of Territories and to the admission of new States, with or without domestic slavery, as they may elect, the equal rights of all the States will be preserved intact, the original compacts of the Constitution maintained inviolate, and the perpetuity and expansion of this Union ensured to its utmost capacity of embracing, in peace and harmony, every future American State that may be constituted or annexed with a republican form of government.

Resolved, That we recognise the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of the majority of actual residents, and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a constitution, with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States.

Resolved, finally, that in view of the condition of popular institutions in the Old World, and the dangerous tendency of sectional agitation, combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the right of acquiring and enjoying citizenship in our own land, the high and sacred duty is devolved with increased responsibility upon the Democratic party of this country, as the party of the Union, to uphold and maintain the rights of every State, and thereby the Union of the States, and to sustain and advance among us constitutional liberty, by continuing to resist all monopolies and exclusive legislation for the benefit of the few, at the expense of the many, and, by vigilant and constant adherence to those principles and the compromises of the constitution, which are broad enough and strong enough to embrace and uphold the Union as it was, the Union as it is, and the Union as it shall be in the full expansion of the energies and capacities of this great and progressive people.

First—Resolved, That there are questions connected with the foreign policy of the country which are inferior to no domestic question whatever. The time has come for the people of the United States to declare themselves in favor of free seas and progressive free trade throughout the world, and, by solemn manifestations, to place their moral influence at the side of their successful example.

Secondly—Resolved, That our geographical and political position with reference to the other States of this continent, no less than the interests of our commerce, and the development of our growing power, requires that we should hold as sacred the principles involved in the Monroe doctrine—their bearing and import admit of no misconstruction; they should be applied with unbending rigidity

Thirdly—Resolved, That the great highway which nature, as well as the assent of the States most immediately interested in its maintenance, has marked out for a free communication between the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans, constitutes one of the most important achievements realized by the spirit of modern times and the unconquerable energy of our people; that result should be secured by a timely and efficient exertion of the control which we have the right to claim over it. And no power on earth should be suffered to impede or clog its progress by any interference with relations that it may suit our policy to establish between our government and the governments of the States within whose dominions it lies. We can, under no circumstance, surrender our preponderance in the adjustment of all questions arising out of it.

Fourthly—Resolved, That in view of so commanding an interest the people of the United States cannot but sympathise with the efforts which are being made by the people of Central America to regenerate that portion of the continent which covers the passage across the inter-oceanic isthmus.

Fifthly—Resolved, That the Democratic party will expect of the next administration that every proper effort be made to insure our ascendancy in the Gulf of Mexico, and to maintain a permanent protection of the great outlets, through which are emptied into its waters the products raised out of the soil, and the commodities created by the industry of the people of our Western valleys and of the Union at large.

MILK LEG, DREADFUL ULCER—PALPITATION, WEAKNESS—MOTHER AND DAUGHTER CURED—HAMPTON'S TINCTURE TRIUMPHANT!

HUNDREDS OF OUR OWN CITIZENS, the Rich, the Poor, everywhere, bear the same TESTIMONY.

Read the following certificate from a lady, endorsed by Postmaster E. P. Cooper:

CAPON BRIDGE, Hampshire county, Va., March 1, 1854.

Mr. E. P., Cooper.—Dear Sir: Agreeable to your request, and my own desire to benefit the afflicted, I hereby certify the great relief I received from the use of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE.

I was taken with a violent palpitation, or rather fluttering of the heart, which continued several days; it seemed as though my heart had almost forgotten its office. The family became alarmed and procured a bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this TINCTURE OF HAMPTON'S I was entirely relieved.

This is the third instance of relief in my family by the use of this valuable medicine. Two or three years ago, I was laid up with ulceration of my ankle, from the effect of what is usually called a milk leg. I had lost all taste and appetite; and the sore which was some four inches up and down, and half-way around my ankle, rejected every effort to heal it, until I procured HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, one bottle of which restored my health healed my ankle, and I am freer from swelling than the last thirty years.

Again, one of my daughters was very low from severe disentery, and when she began to sit up her feet commenced swelling which increased every day, to be very painful—she used a bottle of Hampton's Tincture; the pains were assuaged, the swellings subsided and her health returned—we kept her legs bandaged with strips of woollen until her strength returned.

I have been thus particular, that others, under similar circumstances, might be induced to avail themselves of this remedy.

Yours with respect,

I do hereby certify that I am personally quainted with Mrs. Edwards, and can safely commend the above statement to be correct.

E. P. COOPER, Postmaster,
Capon Bridge, Hampshire co., Va.

☞ Delicate ladies and children will please give it a trial.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N.

Portsmouth, Va., Aug., 18, 1851.

MR. J. E. BOSAN.—Sir. While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state, that I have great confidence in the virtues of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in dispepsia, loss of appetite, dizziness and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted, as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am respectfully yours.

THE FEMALE SYSTEM.
LIVER COMPLAINT. DEBILITY.

Extract from James Harris, Esq's Letter, Alexandria, Va.

After speaking of wonderful cures on himself, he says: "Mrs. H. has been suffering with the liver complaint and with debility, constantly complaining, from weakness, through her whole system. She now enjoys better health than for thirty years, being entirely restored by the use of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture."

DISEASED SIDE, BREAST AND EYES.

Extract from a Letter from J. Grimes, Esq., London county, Va.

"My wife has been for years afflicted with great weakness, pain in the breast, side and back; palpitation of the heart; feebleness of the nervous system; loss of appetite; complexion sallow; the sight of one eye almost gone, the other very weak. I am pleased to say, Hampton's Tincture has restored her to perfect health. Her eyes are as good now as ever they were.

RHEUMATISM THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS.

Mrs B. Bagwell of Virginia, suffered from Rheumatism from her 12th to her 50th year of age; at times entirely helpless. Being wealthy, she employed the best medical attention and tried many medicines, but was cured only by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.

CHRONIC INFLAMATORY RHEUMATISM.

The wife of Thomas M. Yeakle, 76 Pearl st., was a great sufferer for eight years. Restored to perfect health by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.

MERCURIAL RHEUMATISM.

Mr. Jarret Plummer, 168 East Baltimore st., suffered with this disease intensely six years; could not sleep; dreadful ulcers formed on his ribs, from which splinters of bones issued. His physicians pronounced him incurable; but Hampton's Vegetable Tincture cured him.

HEREDITARY SCROFULA.

A boy in the family of Hon. W. P. Thommasson, once member of Congress from Kentucky, was a mass of sores from head to foot. His eye lids turned inside out, protruding over the eyeballs so as to produce blindness. He was cured by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASE, &c.

Mr. Wm. Oldham, of Baltimore Custom House, suffered with these complaints for 18 months, with both body and mind seriously affected.—He was cured by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture

DRAPER AND TAILOR,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.,

To his patrons in his immediate vicinity, those of Pasquotank and the adjacent counties, the undersigned would most respectfully tender his thanks for the liberality with which they have patronized his establishment, from its commencement to the present time.

In making his selections for the present Spring and ensuing Summer, emotions of gratitude and a desire to retain the favor and patronage of a discerning community, have had the happy effect of improving his judgment, and inducing an exercise of taste and fancy unsurpassed even by himself. As a part of his stock, to which he respectfully invites the early attention of the public generally, he enumerates the following, to wit:

CLOTHS and CASSIMERES—Blue, black, brown, green and fancy colored. VESTINGS—Cloth, cassimere, silk, satin, Marseilles, &c., both plain and figured, of every variety of color and shade. SHIRTS—Vergonia, silk, linen and linen-bosomed, of beautiful texture, style, quality and make. DRAWERS—Vergonia and finest twilled Jeans, cut and made in the most modern and approved styles. HALF-HOSE or SOCKS—Silk, thread, cotton, to please the most fastidious or accommodate the most economical. SUSPENDERS—Of every variety; a few indescribably elegant. STOCKS and CRAVATS—A most beautiful assortment of every shape, style and fancy. COLLARS—Of the old sort, new sort, and a la Byron. GLOVES—Cotton, silk, kid, black, white and colored. POCKET HANDKERCHIEFS—Silk and linen cambric of ordinary to extra quality, &c., &c.; together with a choice selection of trimmings to match those Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, which he is prepared to have made up to order in the latest Northern and Parisian fashions, to suit his customers and sustain his reputation for good "fits" and fine work.

☞ A pretty good stock of French Fancy Cassimeres. Call early, and have your measure taken. Store immediately opposite the Boot and Shoe Store of Messrs. Knox & Jackson. See sign. JAMES B. DYER.

SURE CURE!

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

WHERE may be obtained the most speedy remedy for weakness or loss of Organic Powers, Pain in the Loins, Diseases of the Kidneys, Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose and Skin, Constitutional Debility, impediments to Marriage and all those horrid affections arising from indiscretions, no matter whether from intemperance, or the use of ardent spirits or any other cause.

TO YOUNG MEN,

especially who have become the victims of evil practices. Alas! what countless numbers of generous and noble-hearted beings have been swept to untimely tombs; thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellects, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre.

Those suffering from any of the following melancholy effects, should immediately apply to

DR. JOHNSTON.

Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c., &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, Confusion of ideas, Depression of Spirits, Forebodings of Evil, Aversion of Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, etc., are some of the evils produced.

OFFICE—No. 7, South Frederick Street, Seven Doors from Baltimore St., East side, up the steps. ☞ Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place

A CURE WARRANTED OR NO PAY.

The many thousands cured at this Institution and the very extensive practice of Dr. Johnston (exceeding all others) besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee that he is the only proper Physician to be consulted.

Dr. Johnston, member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended, sometimes, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical operations performed by Dr. J. witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guarantee that the afflicted will find a skilful and honorable physician.

N. B.—There are so many ignorant and worthless Quacks advertising themselves as Physicians, ruining the health of the already afflicted, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say, especially to those unacquainted with his reputation that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his office.

Weakness of the Organs immediately cured and full vigor restored.
